

Errors in Saint-Denys Historical Article

I am notifying you that there are a lot of printing errors in the article (“An Historical View of Dreams and the Ways to Direct Them: Practical Observations by Marie-Jean-Leon-Lecog, le Marquis d’Hervey-Saint-Denys” by CM. den Blanken and E.J.G. Miejer, Lucidity Letter, 7(2), 67-78). They are:

On page 67: Marie-Jean-Leon-Lecoq is correct and not Marie-Jean-Leoa-Lecog. The co-author is not Mr. Miejer but E.J.G. Meijer.

On page 68: where is the acknowledgement for the frontispice-photos “reprinted with kind permission from the University Library Utrecht”.

On page 69: The spelling of the different transcriptions from the name is essential, so referring to page 48 from the original book the transcription must be ‘le Marquis d’Hervey-Saint-Denys” and not “le Marquis d’Hervey-Saint-Denis”

On page 70: W. Leertower must be W. Leertouwer

On Page 73: I miss the reference at Van Eeden: Dromenboek. I wanted to include this, because I wanted to indicate that there exists a book with the complete 352 lucid dreams of Van Eeden. (Editors note: The reference number 15 should include the following: “Also in: Eeden, F. van: Dromenboek. Contains the 352 lucid dreams on which his “study of dreams” has been based as well as “A study of dreams” itself Edited by D. Schlüter. Uitg. Bert Bakker, Amsterdam; 1978.”)
